5. EVIDENCE OF TITLE AND TITLE. A title commitment (“Title Commitment”) was acquired from TitleOne (the “Title Company”) in order to demonstrate the status of title to each Property for purposes of auction. Buyer may acquire a title policy from Title Company at Buyer’s sole cost and expense in the form of a standard owner’s title insurance policy or any extended title policy available between Buyer and Title Company. Prior to signing this Agreement, Buyer has had the right to inspect the Property and the condition of title of the Property to determine if the condition of title is acceptable to Buyer and to determine, among other matters, if any third party(s) has any right in the Property not shown by the public records (such as an unrecorded easement, unrecorded lease, or boundary line discrepancy). The Buyer shall accept title to the Property “AS IS” and understands that Seller (including its employees, agents, brokers, advisors and contractors) makes no warranty or representation of any kind regarding the condition of title to the Property.

Buyer acknowledges that Seller has made no representations of any material fact concerning the Property beyond those expressly provided in this Agreement, that Buyer has had an adequate opportunity to inspect and investigate the Property; and, that Buyer has made a thorough independent examination and inspection of the Property, and is relying solely upon their own examination and inspection thereof. Buyer further acknowledges that Seller has made no representations or warranties as to whether the boundary lines of the Property are accurate, nor any representation as to the number of acres or the number of square feet or frontage of the Property. Buyer has had an adequate opportunity to examine and inspect the boundaries of the Property and will make their own determination as to acreage, square footage, and/or frontage, and whether the location of improvements and boundaries are accurate, and is purchasing the Property in reliance upon their own determination thereof and regardless of whether or not said location of improvements and boundaries are accurate.
